A reception will be held the queen and her court O at 8:30 p.m. in the Center Lounge between Kastle K performances.

Revised Colloquia Released

Revised colloquia schedule for October has been released by Dr. P. A. Kildahl, in charge. It is as follows:

Oct. 16 Group III has the topic "Inner City Problem." Members will meet with faculty host Dr. Davie Olson, 621 Third Ave. S.W., from 8 to 10 p.m.

On Oct. 18, Groups 1 and II will meet from 7 to 9 p.m. Group I will discuss "Teilhard de Chardin" with their host Dr. John Bachman at 421 Eighth St. N.W.

Group II and its host Dr. John O. Chellevold, 107 Iowa St. will discuss a "Comparison of Short Sermons of Bultmann and Tillich."

Oct. 19 "Alice in Wonderland" will be discussed by Group IV from 8 to 10 p.m. Their host will be the Rev. Waldemar Gies, 308 Fifth Ave. N. W.

All groups will remain divided as they were last month.

Symphony Opens Season With Oct. 15 Pops Concert

Fun, food and make-believe travel will be on the menu Sunday night, Oct. 15, when the Wartburg Community Orchestra opens its 1967-68 season with a pops concert in Knights Gymnasium.

"Last year's 'French - cafe' theme went over so well we were encouraged to repeat the pops concert this year," said Robert Gremmels, of the symphony committee.

Billed as "A European Tour," the concert will take the audience on an imaginary visit to London, Paris, Vienna and Rome with the performance of such works as Coates' "London Suite," Strauss' "Blue Danube," Gershwin's "An American in Paris" and Denza's "Funiculi Funicula."

Concert Is At 7:30

Concert-goers may come for only the concert at 7:30 p.m., or they may come between 6 and 7:15 p.m. to enjoy a "shipboard Sunday supper" as well.

They will be ushered aboard the SS Wa-Com-Sy, where they will be served a submarine sandwich, navy beans, a doughnut, potato chips and beverage.

Dinner music will be provided by the Knightliters, a Wartburg student ensemble noted for its performance of big-band music reminiscent of the 1940's.

Tickets Are Good

All members of the Wartburg Community Symphony Association, as well as Wartburg students, are admitted to the concert on their season tickets.

According to Mrs. Glenn Anderson, pops concert chairman, as many as four hundred are expected for the supper--and about twice that many for the concert.

The Wartburg Community Symphony Orchestra, beginning its 15th season, will be directed for the third year by Franklin E. Williams, of the Wartburg Music Department. Besides the conductor, Wartburg provides a concert hall and library facilities for the orchestra.

Larson Will Sing

Augmenting the orchestra for this performance will be C. Robert Larson of the Wartburg music faculty, tenor; Byron Tweeten, junior from Forest City, baritone; and the Wartburg Castle Singers, directed by Dr. James E. Fritschel.

Larson will sing two operatic arias, and Tweeten, along with the Castle Singers, will appear in two works by Gilbert and Sullivan: "When I Was a Lad," and "I Am the Very Model of a Modern Major General."

Arias scheduled are the "Flower Song" from Bizet's opera "Carmen" and "Vesti La Giubba" from Leoncavallo's "Pagliacci."

Members From Iowa

As in the past, membership in the 60-piece orchestra is drawn from throughout northeast Iowa as well as from the Wartburg student body.

Included in the orchestra this year are five students who have been awarded scholarships by the Wartburg Community Symphony Association.

They are sophomores Sonja Rachut, viola; Richard Adkins, cello; Linda Baustian violin; and freshmen Martha Moore, cello, and Terri Hughes, bass.

Season memberships in the Symphony Association, either individual or family, are still available and will be sold at the box office. Both are good for all five concerts.

Dell Will Give Venite Meditation

Venite for next Thursday will be Communion in which the communicants will serve each other.

Dr. Robert Dell, Religion Department, will give the meditation.

All students are invited to participate in the service, according to Dr. Dell.

Tragic Movie Next Tues.

"Lilith," a tragic love film, will be shown Tuesday in connection with the English Dept. movies.

Jean Seberg, Warren Beatty, Henry Fonda, Kim Hunter and Anne Meacham star in a delecate story centered around a young occupational therapist-in training and a mentally disturbed girl.

The young man falls in love with the girl and unwittingly destroys her.

The movie is based on the novel of the same name by J.R. Salamanca. Robert Rossen directs. "Lilith" will be shown at 6 p.m. in the Neumann Chapel-auditorium.

Dates Announced For 2 Dinners

Secretaries who have worked in the Dean of Students Office will attend a dinner Friday, Oct. 20. Any secretaries who have worked from 1947 up till 1967-68 have been invited.

Another dinner will be given Saturday, Oct. 24, for all Wartburg student body presidents and vice presidents who have served from 1948-49 to the present.

Both dinners, according to Dean of Students Earnest F. Oppermann, in charge of both dinners, will be held in the Castle Room at 5:30 p.m.

3 Will Attend ACP Conf.

Three Wartburg journalists, senior Sue Radig, editor of the Fortress, and juniors Dean Kruckeberg, Trumpet editor, and Mike Sondergard, managing editor of the Trumpet, will travel to Chicago next Thursday to attend the annual Associated Collegiate Press Conference.

The conference, which will be held in Chicago's Conrad Hilton Hotel, runs through Saturday, Oct. 21. Highlighting the three day meeting will be special topic sessions with leading speak from ACP, National Schola Press Association and pro sional journalists.

Some of the topics to be di cussed include typograph makeup, news coverage, photo raphy and the problems faci college editors of both newspa pers and yearbooks.

Kishosha To Be Convo Speaker

Sam Kishosha, convocation speaker Monday, will discuss the subject "The Rising Tide of Nationalism."

Kishosha is an Educational Attache from the Embassy of Tanzania in Washington, D. C., and was personally appointed by His Excellency Chief Michael Lukumbuzya to serve as ambassador to the United States and member of the Tanzania delegation to the United Nations.

He will be speaking for a country which is affirming a position of independent nationalism which hopes to break through the impasse of the East-West power struggle.

This will be the last lecture of the sequence "Nationalism--Promise or Peril?"

'Macbeth' To Be Given

"Macbeth," which is full of colorful and exciting scenes, is the first production by the Wartburg Players this year. The play will be presented tonight and again next Saturday night, Oct. 21.

n Status Quo Prevail?

Wartburg College is a liberal arts institution, posed, on the whole, of Protestant, middle- Midwestern students. One would think that a ss-section of this type would produce an outcry ut some of the new policies that could be heard m one end of campus to the other. One would k that the typical student at Wartburg would re- l against these new policies. Yet, the powers that make it quite clear that no complaints have en directed to them.

"Are the policies really all that perfect this is a question some of these powers are They feel that we students must really like ing about the 4-4-1 program.

Leads To Investigation

his feeling on the part of some of the powers d to an investigation of the seeming lack of iasm to express one's self. Trumpet inquir- ve led us to conclude that, indeed, there are some complaints. But they are not being directed to the right people. Also, there seems to be a feeling on campus that a complaint, even if it is registered will have no audience. This attitude is quite unfounded. There are some people on campus who do care about how the average student feels, and they want to hear from you.

To pose some thought-provoking questions:

1. Are you really happy now with the food in f? You must be; there haven't been any com- s lately. How about the service? SEE DAVE D.

2. Are you completely satisfied with the 4-4-1 am? If you aren't, now is the time to complain the policies are still new and the faculty en to suggestions. See Dave Wild.

Desire Something Better

3. MARRIED STUDENTS! Are you really sa- d with your accommodations, or do you desire thing better? Perhaps the school should pro- you with some low-cost apartments as most r institutions do.

4. What do you think of the new dance policy? Dave Wild.

5. It has been said that the food was better last when we had dress-up night. Must we dress p to have good food?

6. Do you really understand the attendance policy in all your courses? It is different in every class now. Wasn't it nice last year when most of us knew we could cut a certain number of classes before it would affect our grade? Wasn't it nice when an excused absence was, in most cases, defined in the same way by all professors and you didn't need to be on your deathbed to be excused? This new policy is definitely a regression in terms of student rights and an insult to good organization.

Covers May Term

7. OFF-CAMPUS STUDENTS! Do you realize that the rent for the winter term as charged to on-campus students covers not only the winter term but also the May term and the week intervening these two terms? Does your landlord know this?

8. Also to OFF-CAMPUS: Do you realize that the college does not set rent maximums and minimums for you, but will check into your case to see that you are not being overcharged? See Dave Wild and be sure to answer that questionnaire of his. PLEASE!

9. STUDENTS on PROBATION: There is an ACADEMIC PROBLEMS COMMITTEE to which you can appeal your case. NO ONE PERSON HAS THE LAST SAY in any of your cases; this committee can help you. SEE DAVE WILD.

Does Not Define Term

10. DO YOU REALIZE THAT OUR NEW COLLEGE CATALOG DOES NOT DEFINE THE TERM "PROBATION"?

The definition and implementation of putting people on probation is now left up to one person. He alone (as it seems) decides what a student on pro has to do to get off. There are no longer the written rules there used to be. You do have the right to appeal to the Academic Problems Committee, though. Remember this.

These questions are not posed to stir up trouble. If you have no problems this article is not written for you. The questions are presented to let people know that there is someone to complain to who can do something to alleviate the problems some of us have. We are not advocating total revolt, but there are some areas that need to be clarified and some others that need change. These changes will not come of themselves; YOU must provoke the change if there is to be any.

Only one more question, WILL THE STATUS QUO PREVAIL?

-- Al Sisier

Readers Experience Dropoff

By PAUL NELSON

Those of you who are regular readers of this column (both of you) must have experienced a little dropoff after finishing last week's episode. Explanation is simple. The last paragraph of the article was inadvertently omitted in printing.

NELSON

To alleviate tension and suspense on your part, the last paragraph, in essence, said that the senate with modifications might go a little smoother and might even advance the ball.

* * * * *

The senate meeting Tuesday night was one of rare quality. It was short; it was smooth; it was efficient; and it never even came close to dealing with any of the problems on campus.

When I say, "rare quality," I am referring only to the first three characteristics. Unfortunately, the last one is all too common at senate meetings.

This senate meeting is not alone in its guilt. Very few senate meetings ever see the issues clearly enough to act effectively on an issue. The senate acts as if the major concern (though important) facing it is the perpetuation of itself and the oiling and tuning of a machine that seldom gets used.

* * * * *

Continued convocation improvement, refinements in the 4-4-1 program, and furthering student-faculty interaction are a few of the issues that should and could be tackled by the student government. Maybe senate should take a little more time to find out what's bugging the student body.

I think it is about time for senate to really put that machine it's been building and tuning for so long into use. It might work.

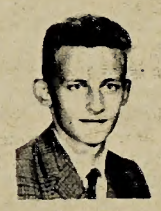
Hardship Endured In Den

By MIKE LARSON

One-Upmanship

I walk into the Den and know suddenly that I shall not win today.

I am brought before the tribunal. A voice tells me to listen to the following classical music and then identify the composer: "Would you believe 'The Exploding Plastic Inevitable'?" I ask timidly. Bach rolls over in his grave and whacks off my ear lobes with a baton.



Larson

"What do you know of carbon disulfide?" another man asks.

"It stinks and so does Isaac Newton!" I scream. Viciously he sears off my nose with a Bunsen burner.

I am spun around to face another foe dressed in shorts and tennis shoes. "Is physical education important?" he demands.

"Calisthenics are vaudeville acts that never made it!" I answer bitterly.

"Keep America fit!" he growls as he applies a figure-four grapevine.

Weakly I look up and into the eyes of still another tormentor. "Who's your favorite fictional character?" he mumbles peering over his spectacles.

"Sgt. Fury and his Howling Commandoes," I find myself answering.

Without further argument, the man with the glasses opens my skull and scoops out my brain.

I turn when another voice demands to know what I see in Rorschach ink blots. "Merely that someone should use a ballpoint," I reply.

The gavel falls. "If thine eye offend thee, pluck it out," cries the judge. And so they do.

I am next aware of a very angry man in paint-stained clothes. He says, "Is it true that you disdain the smile of Mona Lisa?"

"Yes," I repiy, "and furthermore I think that all of Rubens' girls are fat loads."

"Beauty is in the eye of the beholder!" he screams as he blinds my other eye with a glob of finger paint.

Vaguely, in my pounding head, I hear a woman's husky voice. "Isn't free love the most beautiful thing in the whole world?"

"The sex act was banned in Boston," I answer. I hear a doctor speak of sterilizing his equipment, and I know I have lost again.

All that is left me now is a mouth. I gather my last strength and cry out, "I don't believe it. . .I couldn't tell you. . .I haven't read it. . .I never heard of him."

"What further need have we of witnesses?" says the high priest solemnly.

The soldier advances slowly with his spongeful of vinegar on the tip of his spear.

"Wait," I beg him, "I can learn, can't I? Give me a chance. I mmmmpppffff. . . . ."

Knights Travel To Pella., Face The Flying Dutchmen

By LES GYLLSTROM

Wartburg Knights travel to Pella today to face the red-hot Flying Dutchmen of Central, who are currently leading the Iowa Conference and are riding on a 19-game winning streak.

Wartburg will be up against the top offensive and defensive team in the league tonight. Central also has the nation's leading rusher in Doug Van Boven, halfback. Van Boven has averaged over 200 yards a game rushing.

Coach Lee Bondhus mentioned that Wartburg will go into a shotgun formation in an attempt to beef up its offense.

"We plan on using frosh Jim Hotz a lot in this formation," said Bondhus. "Both Hotz and Ashby proved themselves last week in the J. V. game."

Central Shooting For 4th

Central, which is 4-0 this season, is shooting for its fourth straight Iowa Conference title.

Coach Bondhus will start four new faces for Saturday night's game in a effort to develop a more consistant attack. They are Les Ashby at fullback, Jack Smith at end, Paul Flynn at right tackle and Ray Jensen at left guard.

Lack of consistency has been the problem that has plagued the Knights all year.

"We just haven't been able to keep a drive going," commented Bondhus. "We just take ourselves out of a drive by fumbling, or someone misses a key block."

There have been two bright spots in the Knights attack this year. Halfback Gary Nelson has rolled up 347 yards rushing so far this year and has 49 more yards than was picked up by the club's leading rusher last year. Nelson, a freshman, rushed for 134 yards last week in a 12-0 loss to Dubuque.

Bright Spot Is Larson

Other bright spot for the Knights is flanker Bob Larson. Larson caught seven passes from quarterback Terry Goetzinger for 90 yards last week to run his carrier total to 67 catches and 994 yards.

The 67 receptions represent a school record. The old high was 65 held by All-American Wendell Liemohn, 1953-55, and Bob Nielsen, 1961-64. Larson, a junior, has caught 22 passes this season, good for a total of 258 yards.

Commenting on last week's game, Bondhus said, "Against Dubuque we had several brakes but didn't take advantage of them. In the second half, Dubuque got some breaks, took advantage of the breaks they got and that was the ball game.

"We dominated the game the first half, but we weren't consistent," said Bondhus. "We had several good drives that were stopped by mistakes."

Gamma-Vollmer Beats North Hall

Gamma - Vollmer kept pace with league-leading Ketha-Cotta by beating North Hall 7-0 in the Intramural Football League. Junior Doug Fairchild, of the Gamma-Vollmer team, scored the only touchdown in the game.

Both Ketha-Cotta and Gamma-Vollmer are undefeated. The showdown between these two teams will come Tuesday, Oct. 24.

In other games this week Clinton I edged Grossmann II 13-12 and Clinton Ground smashed Grossmann III 13-0. Transfer student Jim Tande and junior Dennis VanLaningham scored TD's for the winners.

Last Saturday's games were postponed because of rain and will be played this Wednesday at 4 p.m.

Wartburg Takes 5-0 Record; Defeat Dubuque 17-42 Saturday

By KEITH KLEMM

Wartburg takes a 5-0 record to its cross-country meet Saturday against Central. The thinclads defeated Dubuque 17-42 last Saturday and the University of Northern Iowa, Cedar Falls, 27-28 on Tuesday.

Cold weather and rain made for slow times Saturday. Jon Thieman and Rod Holt of Wartburg tied for first place with a 21:46 time.

Results against Dubuque were as follows: 1. Holt (W), 2. Thieman (W), 3. Beck (W), 4. Wabb (D), 5. Christensen (W), 6. Sexton (W), 7. Quinn (D), 8. Horstmann (D), 9. Klemm (W) and 10. Winchel (W).

The C. C. defeated UNI for the third consecutive year. Tom Denney of UNI placed first with a time of 20:34, but Wartburg came back with a second by Jon Thieman, a fourth by Rod Holt, fifth by Doug Beck, sixth by Jeff Christensen and tenth by Terry Sexton, to clinch the meet 27-28.

Harries Tackle Pella

Today the harriers tackle Central at Pella. Central has lost its number one man, Dennis Karnstedt. Karnstedt placed first in the conference last year. The Dutchmen will field a well-rounded team as they retain four of their top five runners. They are Dick Bradt (9th), Ammanuel Mehveteab (10th), Stan Smith, (12th) and Mike Ashby (18th).

Wednesday Wartburg will host Luther at the Waverly Country Club golf course. The race starts at 4 p.m. Luther is favored for it as it defeated UNI 26-29 last week.

The Luther meet will be a pre-Homecoming event.

Knight J.V. Team Defeats Luther

By TOM DAHLEN

Last Monday's Junior Varsity football game was a joy to watch. This time Luther's J.V. was the victim, 19-0 on a cold fall afternoon.

The Knights' defense was spectacular in all respects. Ends Al Rousch and Mike Wagner contained Luther's running plays. Conrad Hellerich was the big defensive asset, playing the linebacker slot. Mike Grosvenor, and Jerry Pipho were also important in the line, rushing the passer and making valuable tackles.

Only once was Luther within Wartburg's 20-yard line, making Wartburg's defensive showing much better than in the Lea College game.

Offensive guns were Jim Hotz and Les Ashby, who together accounted for Wartburg's three touchdowns. Hotz contributed for all Knight receptions, 6 out of 13 of quarterback Phil Smoker's passes. One was for a touchdown.

The other two were run in by Ashby. He picked up 48 yards in 14 carries, and because of his excellence Monday, will probably start this Saturday for the varsity.

Quarterback Smoker called a fine game and the offensive line did a fine job to open huge holes for our Wartburg's.

Coach Jim Lenguadoro was pleased with the team effort displayed. He said the key factor in the victory was that the team "didn't fold under the pressure of going into the fourth quarter with a 0-0 tie." He added, "It seemed like once they got the first touchdown, they 'steamrolled' onto the next two" when the momentum gathered.

Next Monday at 4:30 the J.V. will go after an undefeated season as it stands up to the U. N. I. freshmen at Cedar Falls.

Monday's victory was Wartburg's first football victory over Luther since 1961. But it looks as though the spirit and team effort displayed this year by the junior varsity as the upcoming varsity will change this record for the next few years to come.

TIME

The longest word in the language?

By letter count, the longest word may be pneumonoultramicroscopicsilicovolcanoconiosis, a rare lung disease. You won't find it in Webster's New World Dictionary, College Edition. But you will find more useful information about words than in any other desk dictionary.

Take the word time. In addition to its derivation and an illustration showing U.S. time zones, you'll find 48 clear definitions of the different meanings of time and 27 idiomatic uses, such as time of one's life. In sum, everything you want to know about time.

Not Everything Looks Bad

By JIM KIEFER

Not everything on the football scene at Wartburg looks bad this year. Our junior varsity team is 2-0, including a 19-0 win over Luther's junior varsity team. Freshman Phil Smoker completed many passes, including several to frosh Jim Hotz. One of those went 35 yards for a touchdown.

The two wins of the J.V.'s show the fine job our coaches did in recruiting last year. Maybe we will have a more successful year if we can keep the fine freshman football players we have at Wartburg.

The football team is still looking for its first win of the year when it plays Central at Pella tonight. The Knights put on several good drives last week, but they seem to bog down in the clutch. They never seem to be able to come up with the big play.

I think if Wartburg could ever score early in the game, it would go on to win. It has the nucleus of a good team. All Knights need is confidence in themselves. Maybe tonight Wartburg will get in the win column.

Well, baseball is over for another year. The St. Louis Cardinals rose from the middle of the National League to be World Series champs. Most pre-season picks went to Baltimore and Pittsburgh, but neither team finished in the first division. Boston came from virtually the bottom of the American League to become pennant champs.

Also, the Board of Intramurals made an important ruling this week. In the case of Jim Barkema vs. the board, it was decided not to let Jim play Intramural football because he had lettered in football at Wartburg last year. I disagree with the board's decision because I can see no difference in letting someone play who lettered and is ineligible and Jim's where he just didn't want to play.

I can see the board members' decision from Gamma-Vollmer's point of view. It has to play Barkema's house for the intramural championship and has such a slim chance of winning, with Barkema playing it has almost no chance at all.

I have been asked by several people to put in a request for anyone knowing why the A in "gymnasium" on top of the gym is larger than the rest of the letters to tell me or leave a note in Box 648. The only reason I can come up with is that they might have bought the letter at Windy Acres.

AAUN Director Warns America Of Playing Policeman To World

By CAROL BECKER

Director of the American Association for the United Nations warned Monday that the United States is doomed to failure if it tries to play policeman for the whole world.

Dr. Clark M. Eichelberger, second in a series of three speakers on "Nationalism: Promise or Peril?" at Wartburg College, said the United States now at the zenith of its power, would do better to be satisfied with the role of a leading citizen of the World Community.

"Power can be dangerous," he continued. "The U.S. can no longer expect unconditional surrender in its foreign affairs."

Helped Draw Draft

Dr. Eichelberger, who helped draw up the first American working draft of the UN charter, said, "Speaker after speaker in the U.N., whether friend or foe, has been perplexed by the unilateral action of the U. S. in Vietnam.

"It is unfortunate that in an age when scientific and human revolutions have made old-fashioned nationalism obsolete, we see a trend toward stronger nationalistic feeling."

One of today's great mistakes, Dr. Eichelberger said, is the fragmentation of nationalities, especially in Africa.

"We have nearly eighty states -- mini-states -- who are too small to belong to the U.N., and many of these are developing nations which are leading the so-called, 'revolt in rising expectations.' "

Only One Answer

Dr. Eichelberger feels that the only answer for the poorer nations is the economic federations, and he believes it will happen.

"The African federation will probably not take the shape of a Western European federation, but in order for many of those countries to survive, an economic bond is essential.

Dr. Eichelberger's analysis of the United Nations was well presented. His references to the role of the United States were of particular interest.

He said that the members of the U.N. have had a difficult time understanding the role of the United States in Vietnam, and his speech seemed to indicate that he is in sympathy with the feelings of these nations.

However, Dr. Eichelberger did point out some of the difficulties that U. S. ambassador Goldberg faces in hearing so much criticism on our Vietnam policy.

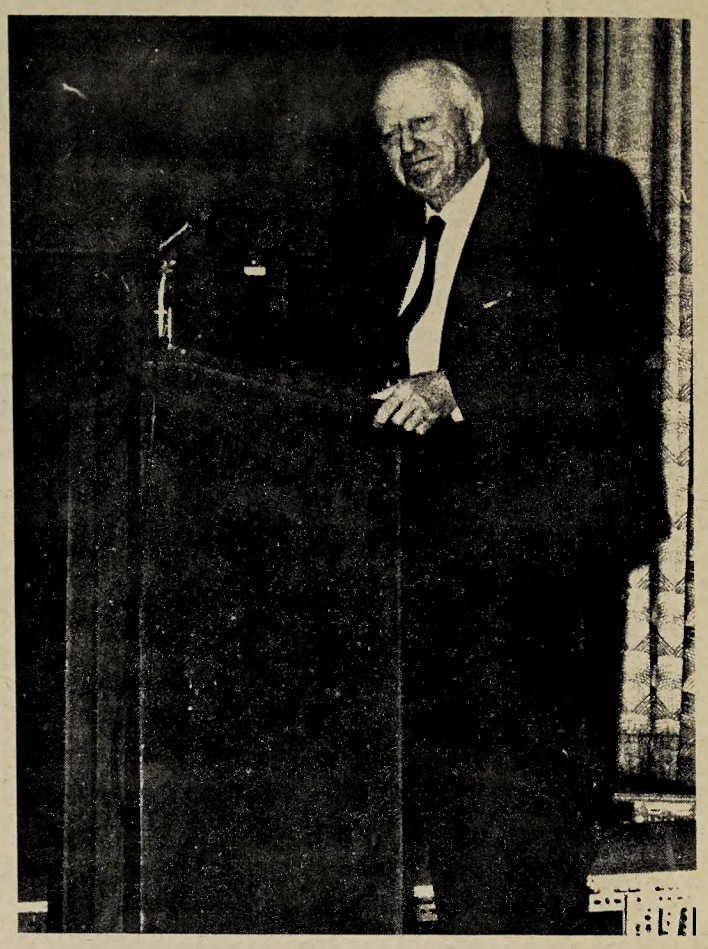
Displays Nationalism

Although Dr. Eichelberger feels that nationalism is old-fashioned and obsolete, he did express his own nationalistic feelings about the United States at several times.

He did admit that the United States has fallen short of its role in the U.N. several times. In spite of this admission, however, Dr. Eichelberger expressed a great deal of faith in the financial and peace-keeping contributions of the United States.

Dr. Eichelberger's respect and pride in the role of the United States are not to be criticized.

It is enough to realize that perhaps he lives with a great deal more faith in the capabilities of his country than many of us do, perhaps because his historical perspective is a great deal broader than ours.



Dr. Clark M. Eichelberger, last Monday's Convo speaker, strikes a determined pose during his speech on nationalism.

Damsels Issue Challenge.. 'Take Heart And Hustle'

The female population of Wartburg College has united an effort to encorage the opposite sex to "take heart and hustle."

To the "daring and courageous male population of this esteemed institution," the girls have issued the following Damsels' Challenge:

"We the charming, beautiful and willing women of the aforesaid institution, do hereby on this sixth day of October in the year of our Lord 1967, issue the following challenge concerning Homecoming Weekend, Oct. 19-22:

"A sum of fifty cents (50¢) will be collected from each Wartburg woman who has the honor of being escorted by a dashing knight to the gala festivities of Homecoming Weekend. This money in a common fund will be awarded to the boys' housing group which achieves the highest percentage of dates."

It was the consensus of the young ladies that members of both sexes enjoy the Homecoming activities more with each other than separately.

Realizing that dating is an essential part of the maturing process, the ladies say they have issued the Damsels' Challenge as an attempt to positive action, not as a solution.

MONEY-FOR-LIVING
who needs it?
Everyone needs life insurance. But not everyone gets it soon enough. Put off buying and you pay a higher rate—and run the risk of future *un*insurability. Besides, there's no better way to build the net worth you will want 20 years from now. For Lutherans, age 16-25, AAL's Student Special makes good sense. It's based on permanent protection, without "war clause" exclusions. It's affordable now, expandable later. Ask your AAL Professional about the Student Special. And ask him to explain how being a member of Aid Association for Lutherans associates you fraternally with many projects of Lutheran concern—like the granting of student scholarships, faculty fellowships and other awards. Get going with needed Student Special savings and protection.
